Other Indie Favorites

The Intern's Handbook: A Thriller, by Shane Kuhn (Simon & Schuster, $25) "I have a twisted sense of humor and so does Shane Kuhn, the author of this darkly funny novel of office work and assassination—something like what you might get if Joshua Ferris and Josh Bazell ever collaborated. It's full of misdirection, red herrings, and characters so layered with secret identities and hidden agendas that even they may not know the truth. If you learn nothing else from this exciting, exhilarating debut, take this lesson to heart: If the intern offers to make you coffee, just say 'No, thank you.'" —Billie Bloebaum, Powell's Books at PDX, Portland, OR

Savage Harvest: A Tale of Cannibals, Colonialism, and Michael Rockefeller's Tragic Quest for Primitive Art, by Carl Hoffman (Morrow, $26.99) "The tragedy of Michael Rockefeller's death is made far more poignant by the larger tragedy of the environment that surrounded it. Faulty ethnographic assumptions compounded by unsettling socio-economic factors bring a depth and pathos to Savage Harvest. A rare balance of mystery and the author's slowly unfolding epiphany of understanding is maintained throughout this riveting and edifying work of nonfiction." —Alden Graves, Northshire Bookstore, Manchester Center, VT
