Another Indie Favorite

Flora: A Novel, by Gail Godwin (Bloomsbury, $16) "In the last months of America's war with Japan, 10-year-old Helen is left in the care of a relative from Alabama while her father leaves to work on a secret government project. A polio scare soon quarantines the two women at home, unable to escape each other. The trouble, as Helen sees it, is that she is the most mature female in the house. Helen believes she is the one in control, until tragedy strikes on a deserted road one evening and she discovers the truth. Anyone curious as to why Gail Godwin has been honored with so many awards only needs to read this book to learn why." —Hunter Coleman, The Alabama Booksmith, Birmingham, AL
