Other Indie Favorites

Troika: A Novel, by Adam Pelzman (Amy Einhorn Books/Putnam, $25.95) "Troika, the three, is a mesmerizing tale of the relationship of three people, Julian, Perla, and Sophie, and how their lives intersect. Pelzman poignantly portrays each character and intimately engages the reader in their personal lives. The connections of these three and the surprises that result make for an unforgettable reading experience. This book is hard to put down. I loved it!" —Stephanie Crowe, Page & Palette, Fairhope, AL

My Accidental Jihad: A Love Story, by Krista Bremer (Algonquin, $24.95) "Bremer's marriage memoir opened my eyes to a culture I didn't know much about. Great books invite us in, give us an education without our realizing we are learning something, and change us with each page. That's what this account did for me. Bremer's marriage to a Libyan Muslim crosses cultural boundaries, and hardships and heartbreaks abound — but there are blessings and happiness, too. I'll be recommending this one!" —Annie Jones, The Bookshelf, Thomasville, GA
