Another Indie Favorite

Brewster: A Novel, by Mark Slouka (W.W. Norton, $14.95) "It is Brewster, New York, 1968, the peak of the Vietnam War, and 16-year-old Jon Mosher, son of Jewish immigrants who escaped Europe during WW II, is searching for escape from a dead-end town and his guilt who his older brother's death. He meets Ray Cappicciano and together they struggle to make sense of their quickly changing world. Jon discovers his strength running track with his high school team, and Ray finds his strength in the fighting arena. Raw and brutal at times, this poignant story's well-drawn characters stay with you well after the book is closed." —Helen Markus, Hearthfire Books of Evergreen, Evergreen, CO
