Another Indie Favorite

Fin & Lady: A Novel, by Cathleen Schine (Picador, $15) "This book is the escape you want this summer. It is wonderful! It has the sweetest ending to a genuine story that takes place against the backdrop of the 60s in Greenwich Village. A young boy, Fin, is orphaned and his half-sister (who has characteristics of Holly Golightly and Auntie Mame) takes him in. This story and his life are always swirling around his half-sister/guardian, Lady. Literate and aware Fin analyzes Lady's suitors with adult eyes as he survives against the backdrop of the time." —Deon Stonehouse, Sunriver Books & Music, Sunriver, OR
