Other Indie Favorites

The Steady Running of the Hour: A Novel, by Justin Go (Simon & Schuster, $26) "There are so many reasons to want other readers to immerse themselves in this all-embracing novel—the shimmering unreality of life in London before Ashley's deployment to France; the convincing portrayal of the grim horrors of trench warfare; the struggles of mountaineering on Everest; Tristan's compulsion to discover a piece of his family's past. Justin Go handles all these scenarios with a sure hand, and then concludes the whole with an entirely convincing ending. This beautifully haunting story will appeal to a wide audience of readers." —Nicola Rooney, Nicola's Books, Ann Arbor, MI

The Other Story: A Novel, by Tatiana De Rosnay (St. Martin's Press, $26.99) "Nicolas Duhamel's first novel is an amazing worldwide bestseller, but one has to have strong legs to carry the weight of such success and Nicolas doesn't have those. He soon transforms into a vain, egocentric creature, keeping track of his fame through Twitter and Facebook as his friends and family slowly turn away from him. When he takes some time off in an exclusive hotel on an Italian island, Nicolas finally starts to realize that, in spite of all his success and wealth, there is no happiness in his life. A captivating novel about a man in search of his identity and the price of fame." —Jean-Paul Adriaansen, Water Street Books, Exeter, NH
