Other Indie Favorites

Euphoria: A Novel, by Lily King (Atlantic Monthly Press, $25) "Loosely based on Margaret Mead's time in Papua New Guinea, this engaging, insightful novel features three young anthropologists in the 1930s who studied the remote, primitive Sepik River tribes. Euphoria is about cutting-edge research and revolutionary ideas, but inevitably it is also about the complications within the scholars' relationships when societal norms are stripped away, and love, greed, jealousy, and control are left unfettered. Artfully narrated, alternating between first person and third person as well as journal entries, King's novel offers a unique view into these rich and complicated characters." —Katie McDougall, Parnassus Books, Nashville, TN

Next Life Might Be Kinder: A Novel, by Howard Norman (Houghton Mifflin Harcourt, $26) "Norman's new novel has the elements that make all of his previous novels so superb: the elegant writing, an omnipresent sense of place, an exploration of love, and the tension of a quiet center punctuated by bursts of violence. The story of Sam Lattimore in the aftermath of his beloved wife's murder is erotically charged, mysterious, and haunting. You shouldn't miss it." —Carole Horne, Harvard Book Store, Cambridge, MA
