Another Indie Favorite

We Need New Names: A Novel, by NoViolet Bulawayo (Back Bay Books, $15) "Bulawayo gives her character Darling an emotionally powerful voice while telling her story in such sparse and brilliantly crafted sentences, I had to put the book down just to savor the writing and take a break from the heartbreaking scenes of the strife in Zimbabwe. Bulawayo takes us on one young immigrant's journey from a country being destroyed by violence to one where the grandness and wealth are overwhelming and the Midwestern cold is piercing. This is a debut novel not to be missed!" —Annie Philbrick, Bank Square Books, Mystic, CT
