Another Indie Favorite

The Tilted World: A Novel, by Tom Franklin and Beth Ann Fennelly (William Morrow Paperbacks, $14.99) "In a compelling, poetic, and detailed manner, Franklin and Fennelly bring to life a little-known catastrophe in American history. The Tilted World weaves together the stories of two endearing characters—an orphan who grows up to be a decorated World War I hero turned Prohibition revenuer and a bootlegging firecracker of a woman who yearns for her lost child. Add the setting of a town on the brink of destruction by a deluge and some unsavory characters looking to profit from calamity, and the reader will be swept away by their story." —Sara Peyton, CoffeeTree Books, Morehead, KY
