Another Indie Favorite

Goodnight June: A Novel, by Sarah Jio (Plume, $16) "June Anderson is a high-powered New York City banker specializing in business foreclosures when she learns that the aunt who raised her has died and left her an iconic children's bookstore in Seattle. Through an epistolary scavenger hunt, June discovers the answers to many secrets, not the least of which is how Aunt Ruby was the inspiration for Margaret Wise Brown's classic bedtime story, Goodnight Moon. This is a charming story of love, friendship, family, reconciliation, and finding your true place in this world. Delightful 'comfort food' for readers!" —Jennifer Gwydir, Blue Willow Bookshop, Houston, TX
