Other Indie Favorites

Herbie's Game: A Junior Bender Mystery, by Timothy Hallinan (Soho Crime, $25) "Amiable burglar Junior Bender is forced to chase down a stolen list of names before everyone on it ends up dead. First to fall is Junior's mentor and surrogate father, Herbie, who stole the list in the first place. This delightful mystery poses the question: Do we ever really know the people we love, and do we need to know everything in order to love them?" —Lisa Wright, Oblong Books & Music, Millerton, NY

A Man Called Ove: A Novel, by Fredrik Backman (Atria, $25) "A Man Called Ove by Swedish blogger and columnist Backman is one of those books you read and then want everyone else to read, too. It is also one of those books where you don't dare go into detail about the main character, the setting, or the plot because that would ruin the experience for others. Suffice it to say that the man whose name is Ove is a curmudgeon. He's grumpy. He's cantankerous. And he is a delight! Long may he harrumph!" —Rene Kirkpatrick, Eagle Harbor Book Company, Bainbridge Island, WA
