Another Indie Favorite

The Lion Seeker: A Novel, by Kenneth Bonert (Mariner, $14.95) "This is a perfect book, and given that it is Bonert's debut novel, it's even more astounding. He uses South African apartheid, where blacks are treated like the Jews of Eastern Europe, to convey the drama of a Lithuanian family's emigration to escape the very debasement that they then perpetrate on those who live in their new community. It's a complicated story well told, emotional, fraught with angst, but also with some of the most memorable characters in recent fictional history." —Gayle Shanks, Changing Hands Bookstore, Tempe, AZ
