Another Indie Favorite

The Thing About December: A Novel, by Donal Ryan (Steerforth Press, $15) "Pick this book up and what you'll be holding is the quintessential Irish novel. It is both tragic and brilliant, rich with wit and humor, and full of true-to-life, complex characters who will leave indelible marks on your conscience. First and foremost, there is Johnsey Cunliffe, a sweet and simple soul who tolerates town bullies and schemers and strives to understand a cruel world that is beyond his comprehension. This novel is a shining example of literary fiction that resonates long after the last page is turned." —Mary Toni, R.J. Julia Booksellers, Madison, CT
