Other Indie Favorites

Fire Shut Up in My Bones: A Memoir, by Charles M. Blow (Houghton Mifflin Harcourt, $27) "Mirroring so many of the memories, feelings, and imaginings from my own childhood in small-town Arkansas, Blow's moving memoir tells the pitiless Southern experience of a black man coming of age in Louisiana in a world and time when the legacy of slavery's grip is slipping away ever so slowly but still leaves its searing sting. An important book."
—Chris Crawley, That Bookstore in Blytheville, Blytheville, AR

By the Book: Writers on Literature and the Literary Life From The New York Times Book Review, Pamela Paul, Ed. (Holt, $28) "I love talking about books, and reading this collection of wonderful By the Book columns from The New York Times Book Review was like getting to have dozens of such conversations with my favorite authors. I learned what David Sedaris would give the president to read, what Ira Glass thinks of guilty pleasures, and who Donna Tartt admires. There's a wide selection of interviewees, including some non-authors, and it's fascinating to see how many of their answers overlap. Whether read in short bursts or in one decadent gulp, this is the perfect gift for bibliophiles!" —Lauren Peugh, Changing Hands Bookstore, Tempe, AZ

Another Indie Favorite

The Trip to Echo Spring: On Writers and Drinking, by Olivia Laing (Picador, $16)

"The Trip to Echo Spring is the ideal blend of memoir, literary criticism, and travelogue. Fans of Joan Didion, Susan Sontag, and Geoff Dyer will soon list Olivia Laing as one of their favorite writers. Laing never glamorizes alcoholism; instead, she lifts the romantic veil off the stories we know about some of the most famous drunken scribes and shows just how devastating—but alluring—alcohol can be." —Michele Filgate, Community Bookstore, Brooklyn, NY
