Another Indie Favorite

The Heart Does Not Grow Back: A Novel, by Frank Venturini (Picador, $16) "If you possessed the power of human regeneration, what would you do with it? In the case of Dale Sampson, you use your 'gift' for the ultimate good: reality television. After a horrific incident in high school, Dale realizes he has the ability to spontaneously regenerate his organs and limbs. Following years of depression, he decides—with the help of his longtime best friend and spurred on by the idea of saving a high school sweetheart—to give himself up to the reality show moguls in Hollywood. As outlandish as the plot may sound, this novel is thought-provoking and inspirational, with more than a few laughs along the way." —Amanda Hurley, Inkwood Books, Tampa, FL
