Other Indie Favorites

Wait for Signs: Twelve Longmire Stories, by Craig Johnson (Viking, $22) "Sometimes short stories hit the spot, especially when they're set in a favorite world. For years, Johnson has gifted his friends with stories at Christmas, and this anthology has brought them together for the first time, along with one new story. For the uninitiated, this is a wonderful introduction into Walt Longmire's world, and for those already familiar with Absaroka County, Wyoming, these little snippets of time spent with favorite characters will be like little vacations, a series of short visits with old friends. Sometimes funny, sometimes touching, and always entertaining, Wait for Signs is a complete delight." —JB Dickey, Seattle Mystery Bookshop, Seattle, WA

The Midnight Plan of the Repo Man: A Novel, by W. Bruce Cameron (Forge Books, $24.99) "This madcap romp through the not-so-scenic parts of northern Michigan—a very beautiful and scenic part of the country for the most part—will keep you laughing until the very last page. Let us hope that there are more Ruddy McCann adventures on the way as Cameron, the bestselling author of A Dog's Purpose and A Dog's Journey, could well become the Carl Hiaasen of the North." —Jill Miner, Saturn Booksellers, Gaylord, MI
