Another Indie Favorite

The Deliverance of Evil, by Roberto Costantini (Quercus, $14.99) "Masterfully delivering a mystery that explores modern Italian history, the complexities of relationships, and the depths of evil, Costantini's The Deliverance of Evil is an intriguing thrill ride. Commissario Michele Balistreri, once young and impulsive, now older and haunted, must investigate a series of twisted killings and their connections to an evil from years ago. Costantini has created both an unforgettable, complex character in Balistreri and a mystery that never stops surprising the reader." —Luisa Smith, Book Passage, Corte Madera, CA
