The Bishop's Wife: A Novel, by Mette Ivie Harrison (Soho Crime, $26.95) "Linda Wallheim is the local bishop's wife and the mother of five sons, all but one out of the house and on their own. As a Mormon, Linda has been increasingly frustrated with some of the Church's doctrine. While her life is busy fulfilling her duties with many community services and being the hostess for the ward at all hours, she chafes under the patriarchal beliefs and practices. When she is called to care for a five-year-old girl whose mother has mysteriously disappeared, Linda begins to question the circumstances of the young wife's absence. This is a beautifully written story about a woman who supports her husband as the bishop while recognizing that her inner convictions might go against his will. A compelling read!" —Patricia Worth, River Reader, Lexington, MO

Almost Famous Women: Stories, by Megan Mayhew Bergman (Scribner, $25) "Bergman's latest collection of short stories is simply spectacular. In the tradition of her award-winning first collection, Birds of a Lesser Paradise, Bergman has given readers tales filled with achingly real, exquisitely crafted characters who seem to leap off the page. Beautifully told, the stories provide intimate snapshots of unique, lesser-known women in history, each facing life's challenges head on—poverty and prejudice, hardship and sacrifice—bravely charging forward without looking back." —Anderson McKean, Page & Palette, Fairhope, AL

If Only You People Could Follow Directions: A Memoir, by Jessica Hendry Nelson (Counterpoint, $15.95) "Memory doesn't move in a straight line. It is chaotic, digressive, and imperfect. While most memoirs force life into the restrictions of straight lines, Nelson embraces the chaos by moving back and forth in time, free-associating among memories and organizing her life into a series of essays. What could be just another memoir of a family disintegrated by substance abuse becomes a vibrant and challenging exploration of abuse, obsession, coping, family, friendship, and self-discovery." —Josh Cook, Porter Square Books, Cambridge, MA

Gracefully Grayson, by Ami Polonsky (Disney-Hyperion, $16.99) "This is the story of a brave child who goes through a transformational journey of self-discovery with the help of theatre and some caring people. Sixth-grader Grayson, who lost his parents at a young age and now lives with his aunt and uncle, has never felt like he belonged anywhere. When a new girl joins his class, Grayson thinks he's finally found a friend. He decides to try out for the upcoming play, The Myth of Persephone. But when Grayson decides at the last minute to audition for the role of Persephone, he is unprepared for what lies ahead, both at home and at school. This courageous book is Wonder for the LGBT community." —Amber Midgett, Main Point Books, Bryn Mawr, PA
