Other Indie Favorites

The Soul of Discretion: A Chief Superintendent Simon Serrailer Mystery, by Susan Hill (Overlook Press, $26.95) "Fans of character-driven suspense who aren't afraid of gritty plot lines are sure to enjoy Hill's Chief Inspector Simon Serrailer series. Hill doesn't shy away from taking her characters into difficult territory, and The Soul of Discretion is definitely her most nerve-racking novel yet. Serrailer goes deep undercover to try to stop a ring of child pornographers while his sister, Cat, is left to deal with family drama, financial problems, a rift in their father's second marriage, and an attentive police officer. Guaranteed to keep you on the edge of your seat!" —Carol Schneck Varner, Schuler Books & Music, Okemos, MI

The Magician's Lie: A Novel, by Greer Macallister (Sourcebooks Landmark, $23.99) "Macallister's debut novel is historical fiction that blends magic, mystery, and romance. In turn-of-the-century America at the height of stage magic's popularity, the renowned female illusionist Amazing Arden must convince a young police officer, Virgil Holt, of her innocence in a murder that looks suspiciously like one of her most famous illusions gone wrong. As Arden's story unfolds over the course of the night she spends in police custody, the reader, as well as Officer Holt, must decide if she is telling the truth or if this, too, is part of her act." —Meagan Albin, Breakwater Books, Guilford, CT
