Another Indie Favorite

The Black-Eyed Blonde: A Philip Marlowe Novel, by Benjamin Black (Picador, $16)

"In well-written noir, each sentence feels like a story unto itself and strung together those sentences form a book that feels somehow 'more' than any other out there. The Black-Eyed Blonde is such a book. Black manages to mimic the style of one of the best-known authors of the 20th century while still keeping a distinct voice. Raymond Chandler fans will be happy to see Philip Marlowe back roaming the mean streets of L.A. There's a sultry femme fatale, a sinister philanthropist, and plenty of punches thrown, pistols whipped, and suits ruined." —Lauren Peugh, Changing Hands Bookstore, Tempe, AZ
