Indies
Introduce

Another Indie Favorite for Ages 4 to 8

Meet the Dullards, by Sara Pennypacker, Daniel Salmieri (Illus.) (Balzer + Bray, $17.99) "How can Mr. and Mrs. Dullard keep their children from experiencing exciting things like books and the outdoors? Perhaps by dressing them in dull colors, by having them watch the paint dry on the walls, and by moving them when things get too exciting. But will they succeed? Siblings Blanda, Borley, and Little Dud have other ideas!" —Kathy Taber, Kids Ink, Indianapolis, IN

Another Indie Favorite for Teen Readers

The Shadow Cabinet: The Shades of London, by Maureen Johnson (Putnam Juvenile, $17.99) "This third installment of the Shades of London quartet has been a long time coming, and it may be the most satisfying book in the series so far. Picking up where they left off, Rory, Callum, and Boo are grappling with unexpected tragedy while trying to solve the mystery of Jane and her cult, dealing with ghosts, and hiding from just about everyone. If you thought things were weird in the first two books, just wait—this one is off-the-charts strange and you'll love every minute of it!" —Paige Mushaw, Northshire Bookstore, Manchester Center, VT
