Another Indie Favorite

Murder at Cape Three Points: An Inspector Darko Dawson Mystery, by Kwei Quartey (Soho Crime, $14.95) "Two bodies appear drifting in a canoe at the Cape Three Points oil drilling rig. They turn out to be Charles and Fiona Smith-Aidoos, prominent members of the local community. Charles works for Malmug Oil, the company that owns the rig. The local police investigate, but nothing comes of it. Sapphire, the Smith-Aidoos' niece, requests the help of the Ghanaian federal police, and Inspector Darko Dawson is assigned. Quartey portrays Ghana with all its charms and quirks, a culture that stands at the brink of the modern world, yet has not lost its tribal traditions." —Janice Hunsche, Kaleidosaurus Books, Fishers, IN
