Another Indie Favorite for Ages 8 to 12
Blackbird Fly, by Erin Entrada Kelly
(Greenwillow Books, $16.99)

"Blackbird Fly is a wonderful story about the struggles of being different, trying to fit in, and still being true to yourself. Apple, who moved to Louisiana from the Philippines with her mother, is trying to fit in at school where she is teased about her heritage. She is able to find comfort in music and becomes a guitar prodigy, using her musical abilities to find new friendships, and, ultimately, herself and acceptance." —Amy Lacy, Petunia's Place, Fresno, CA

Another Indie Favorite for Teen Readers
The Walls Around Us, by Nova Ren Suma
(Algonquin Young Readers, $17.95)

"The Walls Around Us shares the stories of two very different girls—Amber, imprisoned for a terrible crime for so long that she can't remember what the world outside is like, and Violet, a Julliard-bound dancer with a dark and terrible secret that threatens her at every turn. A third girl, Orianna, connects Amber and Violet in ways that none of them understand and that may be the key to setting everyone free. This deep, tense mystery spurs the reader on at every turn." —Emily Hall, Main Street Books, St. Charles, MO
