Another Indie Favorite

The Last Days of Video: A Novel, by Jeremy Hawkins (Soft Skull Press, $15.95) "For film geeks and lovers of all things going out of style, reading this book feels like sharing an inside joke with the author. Each quirky character fights in their own way to save the independent store they love—Star Video—from both the Blockbuster moving into the neighborhood and a town eager for change. This book hilariously takes on today's culture, both embracing and mocking its often conflicting ideals of nostalgia and progress." —Rebekah Arwood, The Bookshelf, Thomasville, GA
