Another Indie Favorite for Ages 9 to 12

The Last Dragon Charmer #1: Villain Keeper, by Laurie McKay (HarperCollins, $16.99)

“What starts as a typical adventure story of a young prince sent on a quest to slay a dragon with a faithful steed at his side suddenly turns upside down when the prince, his horse, and a young sorceress are plummeted into another realm—contemporary Asheville, North Carolina! It turns out that there is some magic—not all of it good—in this new realm, and Prince Caden, Brynne, and Sir Horace (the horse) quickly get involved in solving the mystery of a missing local girl even as they try to find a way back to their own world.”

—Leslie Hawkins, Spellbound Children's Books, Asheville, NC

The Water and the Wild, by Katie Elise Ormsbee, Elsa Mora (Illus.) (Chronicle Books, $16.99)

“Every year on her birthday, Lottie receives an anonymous letter granting her a wish from the magic apple tree. When the illness of her best friend, Eliot, takes a turn for the worse, Lottie asks for one thing: a cure to save his life. Instead of a letter, Lottie receives two sprites who take her through a door in the apple tree and into their world. There, she must weigh the importance of Eliot's life against the lives of an entire world of sprites.” —Brandi Stewart, Changing Hands Bookstore, Tempe, AZ
