Other Indie Favorites

Enchanted August: A Novel, by Brenda Bowen (Pamela Dorman Books, $27.95) "Four unlikely companions join together to rent Hopewell Cottage on Little Lost Island, Maine, for one glorious summer month during which they gradually open up to one another and rediscover their capacity to give and receive love. A brilliant homage to a beloved classic, Bowen's debut novel is a sparkling read any month of the year." —Rona Brinlee, The Book Mark, Neptune Beach, FL

Empire of Deception: The Incredible Story of a Master Swindler Who Seduced a City and Captivated the Nation, by Dean Jobb (Algonquin Books, $27.95) "It was P.T. Barnum who said 'there's a sucker born every minute,' and there was never a better time to take advantage of that fact than during the Roaring 20s. This is the true story of the devious exploits of Leo Koretz, who forsook his Chicago law career to convince unsuspecting people to invest in a Panamanian oil field that he had concocted out of thin air. A fascinating tale of greed and gullibility." —Alden Graves, Northshire Bookstore, Manchester Center, VT
