Another Indie Favorite for Ages 4 to 8
Duncan the Story Dragon, by Amanda Driscoll (Knopf Books for Young Readers, $16.99) "Duncan is a little green dragon who wears red high-tops, enjoys a cold chocolate milkshake, and LOVES stories, but his fiery breath causes a problem. All Duncan wants is to read a good story, but every time he opens a book, the pages catch on fire. What is Duncan going to do? Driscoll's illustrations are bright and cheerful in this tale of friendship, reading, and adventure." —Clara Martin, Lemuria Bookstore, Jackson, MS

Another Indie Favorite for Teen Readers
Rook, by Sharon Cameron (Scholastic Press, $17.99) "I could tell you that Rook is an homage to The Scarlet Pimpernel set in a post-technological future France, where wealthy families are imprisoned and publicly executed. But that wouldn't help you understand what this book is really about. Rook is about the characters: the smart, stubborn young heroine who risks her life to save those who can't save themselves; the rakish smuggler who may be an opponent or an ally; and the memorable group of supporting characters that make Rook a story that you'll savor until the very last page." —Lelia Nebeker, One More Page, Arlington, VA
