Other Indie Favorites

The Library at Mount Char, by Scott Hawkins (Crown, $26) "Mindblowing, outrageous, and visionary, this is without question the best fantasy I have read in many moons! Hawkins has penned a tale that both opens the reader up to new perceptions of the universe, its creation, and ascendancy, and gives the adage 'absolute power corrupts absolutely' an entirely singular meaning. He has imagined characters who are simultaneously loveable and despicable and presents them in a way that is both terrifying and darkly funny. Whether or not fantasy is your genre of choice, The Library at Mount Char will amaze you!" —Lynn Riggs, Books & Company, Oconomowoc, WI

As Night Falls: A Novel, by Jenny Milchman (Ballantine Books, $26) "If you want to experience a great psychological thriller, you must read As Night Falls. Sandy has tried to leave her past behind and to start a new life, but it comes crashing in on her in a vicious way. Two convicts break into her house, and that is just the beginning of the terror as Sandy must try to face the past and save her family. I could not put this book down!" —Melissa Wade, Vero Beach Book Center, Vero Beach, FL
