Another Indie Favorite

Far As the Eye Can See: A Novel, by Robert Bausch (Bloomsbury, $16) "It is a delight to experience the Montana and Wyoming territories circa 1870–1876 through the adventures of Civil War veteran Bobby Hale. His original plan to travel to California fades as he rides west with settlers, scouts for the army, and cares for an injured woman who is running from her Indian husband. The dialect of the narrator and the language of the characters are accurate for the period, allowing the reader to be completely immersed in the setting of this rip-roaring tale." —Paula Steige, MacDonal Bookshop, Estes Park, CO
