Another Indie Favorite

Hold the Dark: A Novel, by William Girdali (Liveright, $14.95) "In a remote Alaskan village where wolves have been taking the local children, a mother calls for a stranger to help locate her missing son. This is the beginning of a harrowing tale of loyalty, dark secrets, and violence, set in the uttermost regions of the Alaskan frontier. Girdali weaves a sinister story that involves family secrets, ritual, and the wildness of a remote land. Perfect for lovers of the works of Cormac McCarthy and Donald Ray Pollack." —Helen Gregory, Maria's Bookshop, Durango, CO
