Another Indie Favorite for Ages 9 to 12

Another Kind of Hurricane, by Tamara Ellis Smith (Schwartz & Wade, $16.99) "Zavion and Henry are each recovering from tragedies. Zavion's house has disappeared with Hurricane Katrina and Henry has just lost his best friend on a favorite mountain in Vermont. In this remarkable debut, told in alternating voices, Smith weaves together each of the boys' stories, allowing readers to feel sad about the circumstances but renewed by the love of others who support them and rally to bring new joy to those who have suffered."

—Arna Lewis, Buttonwood Books & Toys, Cohasset, MA

Another Indie Favorite for Teen Readers

Conviction, by Kelly Gilbert (Disney-Hyperion, $17.99) "Wow! The pressure of the situation that 17-year-old Braden finds himself in when his father is arrested for murder and Braden is the crucial witness builds and builds throughout the novel as the author slowly reveals what really happened that night. My heart is still bleeding for Braden, days after finishing Conviction, I highly recommend this novel for both adults and teens." —Jill Hendrix, Fiction Addiction, Greenville, SC
