Another Indie Favorite for Ages 9 to 12
The Entirely True Story of the Unbelievable FIB, by Adam Shaughnessy (Algonquin Young Readers, $16.95) "Norse mythology, a winking squirrel, a strange man named Mr. Fox who lives in a cemetery in a house built by a witch, and the belief that magic is real all combine to give readers an intriguing story. Pru has an empty space inside her left by the death of her dad, a small-town detective. When she receives a mysterious postcard that asks, 'What is the unbelievable FIB?' she can't resist investigating. Fans of fantasy, adventure, mystery, and mythology will love this series debut. I can't wait for a sequel!" —Karen Briggs, Great Northern Books & Hobbies, Oscoda, MI

Another Indie Favorite for Teen Readers
The Accident Season, by Moira Fowley-Doyle (Kathy Dawson Books, $17.99) "Every October the accident season strikes Cara and her family. Bones are broken and skin is bruised and cut. Some years, the bad years, one of them dies, and Cara thinks this is going to be a bad year. When the origin of the accident season is revealed, no one is ready for it. Spellbinding and sharply beautiful, The Accident Season is a haunting look at the power of secrets." —Amy Brabanec, Brookline Booksmith, Brookline, MA
