Other Indie Favorites

Jade Dragon Mountain: A Novel, by Elsa Hart (Minotaur, $25.99) "Hart has written an excellent historical whodunit set in a remote province of Imperial China in 1708. Li Du, a librarian in exile, investigates the murder of an old Jesuit priest a few days before the arrival of the emperor. Full of mythological, cultural, and historical details, Jade Dragon Mountain also offers a fascinating analysis of the period when foreign businessmen began coveting China's riches, in particular its tea. The plot is tight, the characters and suspects are fully developed, and the story keeps readers guessing with a few extra surprises at the end. I highly recommend this book and am looking forward to reading more adventures featuring Li Du." —Pierre Camy, Schuler Books & Music, Grand Rapids, MI

The Girl From the Garden: A Novel, by Parnaz Foroutan (Ecco, $26.99) "In her accomplished, arresting debut, Foroutan tells a story almost biblical in its basics. People in a mixed, but very religious, clan-determined society in Iran have their lives and roles set out in firmly dictated ways. Conflict ensues when what is prescribed doesn't happen as it should and when basic human longings for autonomy and a sense of self start to emerge. Foroutan writes of a family's unraveling in a powerful story that will vividly live on in the reader's memory and imagination. Brilliant!" —Barbara Peters, The Poisoned Pen, Scottsdale, AZ
