Other Indie Favorites

The Gilded Life of Matilda Duplaine, by Alex Brunkhorst (MIRA, $26.99) "As Thomas walked into Lily Goldman's antiques shop, he had no idea that his life was about to change completely. Assigned to write about Lily's deceased father, a famous film industry mogul, Thomas meets a host of fabulously wealthy and eccentric people and quickly becomes a part of their privileged lives. Things get complicated when he meets Matilda, daughter of the most powerful man in LA, who has kept her confined to their estate her whole life. Thomas' journalistic instincts kick in as he is falling for Matilda and soon he uncovers many secrets these powerful people would rather not be revealed." —Lori-Jo Scott, Island Bookstore, Kitty

Gold Fame Citrus, by Claire Vaye Watkins (Riverhead, $27.95) "Watkins' depiction of a sun-scorched, drought-plagued West is a hypnotic and terrifying vision of an otherworldly and, perhaps most frightening of all, not too distant future. Part J.G. Ballard, part Joan Didion, Gold Fame Citrus explores the complexities of human relationships in the face of environmental catastrophe. Loneliness, jealousy, heartbreak, love, loyalty—even in a post-apocalyptic wasteland people are still people, though just what sort of people is another thing altogether. Haunting and hallucinatory, the world crafted by Watkins is a dream of the future that will not be soon forgotten." —Emily Ballaine, Green Apple Books on the Park, San Francisco, CA
