Another Indie Favorite for Ages 9 to 12
Hilo Book 1: The Boy Who Crashed to Earth, by Judd Winick (Random House Books for Young Readers, $13.99) "This graphic novel is spot-on for middle-grade readers offering just the right balance of action, emotional investment, and giggle-inducing references to bodily functions. Running gags will make readers laugh out loud, and the proof of the power of friendship will make them a little teary. I can't wait to read what's going to happen in the next volume!"
—Tegan Tigani, Queen Anne Book Company,
Seattle, WA

Another Indie Favorite for Teen Readers
Dumplin', by Julie Murphy (Balzer + Bray, $17.99) "Willowdean Davis is fat. And you can either back her up or back off. She is self-confident, fearless, funny, and comfortable in her own skin. Life in Clover City, Texas, has been just fine.
She's got her best friend, Ellen, and she survives the Miss Blue Bonnet Clover City pageant each year. It's only when she meets Bo, a cute co-worker who seems to like her as much as she likes him, that she begins to doubt herself. To find her self-confidence again, Willowdean enters the pageant to prove that she deserves the spotlight as much as anyone else. Murphy tells Willowdean's story with wit, sass, and kindness." —Cathy Berner, Bluewillow Bookshop, Houston, TX
