For Ages 9 to 12: Revisit & Rediscover London Eye Mystery, by Siobhan Dowd (Yearling, $7.99)

"Salim boards the London Eye observational wheel but is nowhere to be found when the ride ends. His cousins, Ted and Kat, strive to solve his disappearance while the adults around them fear the worst. The sleuths' best asset turns out to be Ted's atypical mind. An empathic look at autism and lots of ring-true family dynamics combine in this happily perplexing mystery by beloved British author Dowd."

—Carol Muller, Hickleebee's Children's Books, San Jose, CA

For Teen Readers

Inherit the Stars, by Tessa Elwood (Running Press Kids, trade paper, $9.95)

"With characters who are believable and a female lead who is compelling, Elwood has penned a captivating debut. The House of Fane is in trouble, but Asa, the youngest daughter of the House, thinks she knows how to save it. She just has to marry Eagle, the heir apparent to the throne. There's only one problem—he is her sister's fiancé. I can't wait for the next book in this new series!"
