Other Indie Favorites

Like Family: A Novel, by Paolo Giordano (Pamela Dorman Books/Viking, $22) "This short, spare, beautifully evocative novel becomes a major meditation on the mystery of life, with all of its attendant joy and sorrow. The story of Anna—caretaker, nanny, and confidant—becomes the tale of all families with the extremes of happiness and sadness inherent in every situation. Like Family is poignant, sure to stir emotions in any reader, and, in the end, a paean to living the life that is given." —Bill Cusumano, Square Books, Oxford, MS

The Comedians: Drunks, Thieves, Scoundrels, and the History of American Comedy, by Kliph Nesteroff (Grove Press, $28) "This is a sweeping, in-depth story of how American comedy evolved from its earliest days. From vaudeville and radio to mob-controlled night clubs and television, Nesteroff is adept at showing how the seedy underbelly of show business shaped the stars of yesterday and today. Stuffed to the brim with amusing anecdotes and insider gossip, it is an eye-opening trip. A former comedian himself, Nesteroff has long been a chronicler of the history of comedy in America, and this book is the culmination of years of interviews and research. Fun, entertaining, and insightful." —Jay Aubrey-Herzog, Northtown Books, Arcata, CA
