Other Indie Favorites

The Selected Poems of Donald Hall, by Donald Hall (Houghton Mifflin Harcourt, $22) "This is a gift of honesty, intimacy, and the pure genius that is Donald Hall, as he hand-picks what he considers to be the best of his poetry from more than 70 years of published works. From this former U.S. Poet Laureate comes one essential volume of his works, where 'Ox-Cart Man' sits alongside 'Kicking the Leaves' and 'Without.' As he is no longer writing poetry, this 'concise gathering of my life's work' is the perfect introduction to Hall's literary contributions, as well as closure for his many ardent followers." —Katharine Nevins, MainStreet BookEnds of Warner, Warner, NH

First Bite: How We Learn to Eat, by Bee Wilson (Basic Books, $27.99) "Food scholar Wilson explores not only how our food habits are shaped and the origins of our tastes, but also the problems we have with our present diet and how we can change our palates to lead healthier lives. Entertaining, informative, and packed with food wisdom, First Bite belongs on the shelves of food lovers, history buffs, and all fans of good writing." —Linda Bond, Auntie's Bookstore, Spokane, WA
