Another Indie Favorite

The Boys, by Toni Sala, Mara Faye Lethem (Trans.) (Two Lines Press, $14.95) "Beautifully composed, with a voice that is uniquely his own, Sala with The Boys, winner of Catalonia's highest literary award, heralds a stirring new voice in English translation. Sala's novel, set in an age of increasing detachment and anxiety, unflinchingly spies the tenuous connections and moral ambiguities of modern life. With vivid characters, confident prose, and a heady mix of style and substance, The Boys deserves major attention from devotees of international literature and especially fans of António Lobo Antunes, Javier Marías, Gonçalo Tavares, and Roberto Bolaño." —Jeremy Garber, Powell's Books, Portland, OR
