For Ages 9 to 12: Revisit & Rediscover Ida B ... and Her Plans to Maximize Fun, Avoid Disaster, and (Possibly) Save the World, by Katherine Hannigan (Greenwillow, $6.99)

"Home-schooled by two down-to-earth parents who operate an apple orchard, Ida B thinks like a storyteller and wields words like a poet in her relentless pursuit of fun. When her idyllic lifestyle takes a turn and she's forced to go to public school, Ida B feels her heart begin to harden into a cold, dark stone. The emotional revenge that she wreaks on everyone her is painful to observe and your heart will break for her as she gradually comes to terms with the changes in her life." —Collette Morgan, Wild Rumpus, Minneapolis, MN

For Teen Readers: Revisit & Rediscover The Wee Free Men: A Tiffany Aching Adventure, by Terry Pratchett (HarperCollins, $9.99)

"Tiffany Aching is a witch in the making, but when the Evil Queen of Fairies kidnaps her younger brother, Tiffany becomes a heroine. Using common sense, a frying pan, and a piece of string, this courageous girl takes on monsters in many forms. Humor, adventure, and colorful dialogue make this book unforgettable. Lucky for all of us that this is just the first volume in the five-book Tiffany Aching Adventures series!" —Becky Anderson, Anderson's Bookshop, Naperville, IL
