Another Indie Favorite

The Jaguar's Children: A Novel, by John Vaillant (Mariner Books, $14.95) "Vaillant has established his reputation as an accomplished writer of nonfiction, and he now brings his considerable talent to this debut novel. There are no easy moments in this story told by Hector, a young man engaged in an illegal border crossing inside a sealed tanker truck. Vaillant uses Hector's narration to bring the frequent brutality of the illegal immigration experience to light in visceral detail, engaging both the reader's sympathy and revulsion, which linger long after the last page is turned." —Fran Keilty, The Hickory Stick Bookshop, Washington Depot, CT
