Cockatoo, Too, by Bethanie Deeney Murguia (little bee books, $17.99) "Murguia uses only 12 words in this hilarious, alliterative story that plays with words and sounds. One cockatoo becomes two, and then two become four dressed in tutus. Toucans follow doing the can-can, and eventually all the jungle birds join in the wordplay. This fun, simple story is paired with bright, colorful watercolor illustrations in a book that is both smart and silly—a great combination!" —Jennifer Oleinik, University Book Store, Seattle, WA
