When Mischief Came to Town, by Katrina Nannestad (HMH Books for Young Readers, $16.99) "In this charming story, an orphan from Copenhagen goes to the tiny island of Bornholm to live with the grandmother she has never met. Although she is cheerful and loving, Inge Maria fears that she will never be able to make her grandmother love her because she is always falling into misadventures. To her surprise, Inge Maria's mischief reminds her grandmother of her own childhood, and the two forge a loving bond." —Nancy Banks, City Stacks Books and Coffee, Chicago, IL

For Teen Readers

This Is Where It Ends, by Marieke Nijkamp (Sourcebooks Fire, $17.99) "Fifty-four minutes. That's all it takes to devastate a small town in Alabama. That's all it takes for innocent lives to be lost and some twisted idea of revenge to be enacted. That's all it takes to forever change everyone who is left alive. Told through the eyes and ears of four different characters, with a few social media posts interspersed, this is an unforgettable book. Nijkamp masterfully brings to life the terror and disbelief that a school shooting elicits and makes the reader go through that same turmoil. A thought-provoking must-read!" —Phoebe Dyer, Boswell Book Company, Milwaukee, WI
