Paper Wishes, by Lois Sepahban (FSG Books for Young Readers, $16.99) "Manami literally loses her voice when her family is forcibly relocated from Bainbridge Island, Washington, to the Manzanar internment camp in California. Now relying on her family members, Manami attempts to make sense of the new circumstances of her life. Despite the systematic containment of her new experiences, Manami must decide what is worth speaking up about. Readers know Manami's voice is worth hearing, but will she realize it in time to make a difference?" —Toffer Lehnherr, Wild Rumpus, Minneapolis, MN

For Teen Readers

My Most Excellent Year: A Novel of Love, Mary Poppins, and Fenway Park, by Steve Kluger (Speak, $8.99) "Three high school seniors are given an assignment to reflect on their favorite times in high school and My Most Excellent Year by Steve Kluger is the funny, thoughtful, and oh-so-sweet product. Alejandra, T.C., and Augie tell their stories in alternating chapters, remembering school musicals, baseball games, Mary Poppins, social activism, and the year they made a little boy's dream come true." —Diane Capriola, Little Shop of Stories, Decatur, GA
