Rosalie Lightning: A Graphic Memoir, by Tom Hart (St. Martin's Press, $19.99) "Rosalie Lightning is a haunting and beautiful memoir that lays bare the love parents can have for their children. Hart's simple renditions of his life before and after the death of his young daughter are successful symbols, lucidly conveying the widest range of emotions and thoughts. It would be a disservice to say Rosalie Lightning just made me cry—it also burrowed into my heart. Hart describes the most unthinkable, painful event that can happen to a parent, and even more extraordinarily, he describes the love and the life that is still available afterwards. Rosalie was a joy to read about and, even on the darkest pages, I am glad he gave this gift of a memoir." —Lyla Wortham, Whistle-Stop Mercantile, Douglas, WY

And Again: A Novel, by Jessica Chiarella (Touchstone, $25.99) "This intriguing novel explores the age-old body/soul relationship from a fresh angle by introducing us to four participants in a pilot program that gives terminally ill patients new, genetically perfect bodies. Will these four—a beautiful actress, a womanizing congressman, a talented artist, and a beloved mother—simply resume their lives as they were before disease or accident struck? Or will they make new starts, make different choices? Can their new bodies incorporate what they have learned in the past? A fascinating literary debut." —Ellen Sandmeyer, Sandmeyer's Bookstore, Chicago, IL

The Visitors: A Novel, by Simon Sylvester (Melville House, $18.95) "Neil Gaiman meets Tana French in this debut thriller that takes place on a remote island off the coast of Scotland. Flora is as independent, vulnerable, and anxious for adulthood yet yearning for magic in all of its guises as any teen you're likely to meet in literature. It is no surprise that she is drawn into the mystery of a man and his daughter moving into the abandoned Dog Cottage next door. The braiding of Scottish myth into this tale of suspicious disappearances adds a compelling twist to the wonderfully evocative setting and great cast of supporting characters." —Sarah Hinckley, Hudson Booksellers, Marietta, GA

Alistair Grim's Odd Aquaticum, by Gregory Funaro (Disney-Hyperion, $16.99) "Alistair Grim and company are on the run. After their last encounter with Prince Nightshade, they have come out the villains. But Alistair has a trick up his sleeve. He knows that if he can just get his hands on the legendary sword Excalibur, he might be able to defeat Prince Nightshade once and for all. The problem is finding the lost realm of Avalon. For that he needs a submarine, and what better submarine than the Odditorium? This is a wonderful addition to the Alistair Grim stories!" —Janice Hunsche, Kaleidosaurus Books, Metamora, IN

For Teen Readers

Up to This Pointe, by Jennifer Longo (Random House Books for Young Readers, $17.99) "All her life, Harper has single-mindedly pursued her goal of becoming a professional ballerina in the San Francisco Ballet, to the exclusion of much outside distraction—including a rather interesting new boy named Owen. When Harper is denied her dream, she takes on her ancestor's legacy as an Antarctic explorer and embarks on a journey to a research station at the bottom of the world. Longo's book brings the reader intimately into Harper's heartbreak and healing in a way that will speak to readers of all ages." —Anna Eklund, University Book Store, Seattle, WA
