For Ages 9 to 12

Alistair Grim's Odd Aquaticum, by Gregory Funaro (Disney-Hyperion, $16.99) "Alistair Grim and company are on the run. After their last encounter with Prince Nightshade, they have come out the villains. But Alistair has a trick up his sleeve. He knows that if he can just get his hands on the legendary sword Excalibur, he might be able to defeat Prince Nightshade once and for all. The problem is finding the lost realm of Avalon. For that he needs a submarine, and what better submarine than the Odditorium? This is a wonderful addition to the Alistair Grim stories!" —Janice Hunsche, Kaleidosaurus Books, Metamora, IN

For Teen Readers

Up to This Pointe, by Jennifer Longo (Random House Books for Young Readers, $17.99) "All her life, Harper has single-mindedly pursued her goal of becoming a professional ballerina in the San Francisco Ballet, to the exclusion of much outside distraction—including a rather interesting new boy named Owen. When Harper is denied her dream, she takes on her ancestor's legacy as an Antarctic explorer and embarks on a journey to a research station at the bottom of the world. Longo's book brings the reader intimately into Harper's heartbreak and healing in a way that will speak to readers of all ages." —Anna Eklund, University Book Store, Seattle, WA
