For Ages 9 to 12

To Catch a Cheat: A Jackson Greene Novel, by Varian Johnson (Arthur A. Levine Books, $16.99) "Jackson Greene is back, reluctantly coming out of retirement again, because he and his crew have been framed for pulling a prank. The objective of this long con? To figure out who is framing them and then get them to turn themselves in. The result? Another winner of a book from Johnson, this one filled with revenge, action, and just a little bit of romance."
—Melissa Fox, Watermark Books & Café, Wichita, KS

For Teen Readers

Underwater, by Marisa Reichardt (FSG Books for Young Readers, $17.99) "Debut author Reichardt offers a novel about the psychological aftermath of a school shooting that will change your perspective on the issue forever. Morgan has become agoraphobic after surviving a shooting at her school the year before, but a new neighbor helps her to slowly re-enter the world. Thoughtfully handled and thought-provoking, Underwater is a reminder that violence touches us all, but that there is always room for hope."
—Erin Barker, Hooray for Books!, Alexandria, VA
