Other Indie Favorites

Spill Simmer Falter Wither: A Novel, by Sara Baume (Houghton Mifflin Harcourt, $23) "Baume's debut novel is a heartbreaking story of loneliness and friendship, depression and pure joy, as revealed through the relationship between a man and the dog he rescues. Baume's transcendent use of language and utterly original voice had me stopping to read whole sentences—even entire paragraphs—aloud. Spill Simmer Falter Wither is an amazing achievement by a writer who makes her work seem effortless." —Mary Wolf, Collected Works Bookstore & Coffeehouse, Santa Fe, NM

What Is Not Yours Is Not Yours: Stories, by Helen Oyeyemi (Riverhead, $27) "There is magic in Helen Oyeyemi's writing. There is magic in the settings, which shift between the conventional and the fantastic as readers devotedly follow her characters down any path they please. There is magic in the tales themselves, as readers recognize a situation only to have it bloom into a flower they have never imagined before, full of beauty or of dread. And, most certainly, there is magic in such breathtaking prose and unimaginable characters. This is a captivating story collection, filled with both fairy tale whimsy and dark, complicated mystery. Highly recommended!" —Luisa Smith, Book Passage, Corte Madera, CA
