For Ages 9 to 12

Just My Luck, by Cammie McGovern

(HarperCollins, $16.99) "Nearly everyone knows a family with an autistic child, and the other kids in those families face their own challenges. Benny is a sweet and tender young soul who only wants to help the people around him. His experience with his autistic brother has taught him patience and compassion beyond his years. McGovern will reach a new audience with her first book for younger readers as Just My Luck is very poignant and will strike a familiar chord with readers of all ages." —Jennifer Armstrong, Northshire Bookstore, Manchester Center, VT

For Teen Readers: Revisit & Rediscover

The House of the Scorpion, by Nancy Farmer

(Atheneum Books for Young Readers, $10.99) "Told from the point of view of a boy whose sole purpose is to extend the life of a powerful drug lord, Farmer's story brings us a bleak and horrifying look at cloning, unethical medical intervention, class differences, immigration, and slavery. A dystopian tale that is more timely today than ever." —Collette Morgan, Wild Rumpus, Minneapolis, MN
