Another Indie Favorite

Bottomland: A Novel, by Michelle Hoover (Black Cat, $16) "In the years following World War I, hoping to escape anti-German sentiment, the Hess family settles on Iowa farmland. Two of their girls disappear as the U.S. marches towards World War II, and relationships both within and outside the family suffer. Basing his story loosely on an unearthed family secret, Hoover has written an atmospheric novel evocative of both a time and place." —Kris Kleindienst, Left Bank Books, St. Louis, MO
